Present:

Behavior Analysis Summer Conference:
Assessment, Instruction and Transitions

Assessment: Larry Williams, Ph.D., BCBA-D
And Ms. Holly Seniuk will speak on recent developments in the use of the Assessment of Basic Learning Abilities and Functional Behavioral Assessment

Instruction: Nancy Marchese, M.A., BCBA will discuss recent advancements in instruction and behavioural skills training and how these advancements can benefit both IBI clinic and public education settings.

Transition: Ms. Shiri Bartman, M.A., BCBA and Mr. Louis Busch, BST. will speak on unique perspectives with respect to transitions for people with Autism and Developmental Disabilities across the life span

Schedule of Events:

June 22nd, 2010—Assessment

8:30 am: Registration and Coffee

9:00 am: Larry Williams and Holly Seniuk present on recent developments in the use and outcomes of the ABLA

12:00: Lunch, on your own

1:00: Larry Williams and Holly Seniuk present on FBA and the current state of this science!

Schedule of Events:

June 23rd, 2010—Instruction & Transition

8:30 am: Nancy Marchese presents on recent developments in effective instruction and behavioural skills training.

12:00: Lunch, on your own

1:00: Shiri Bartman and Louis Busch present on transitions across various age groups.

4:00: Closing remarks

Registration:

This event is sponsored by Autism Ontario, ONTABA, George Brown College

You must have a membership or affiliation with one of the sponsors to attend

There is no charge

Maximum attendance is 110 people.

To register email Sylvia Regan at sregan@georgebrown.ca

You must list your affiliation and will receive a confirmation within 5 business days